Foreword . . .

In this forty-fifth edition of the CYCLOPS we have endeavored to carry out a two-fold purpose. The first, and most important, has been to show, by a scanning of these pages, the everyday life and activities of an eventful year at North Georgia College. We hope that in later life this yearbook will bring back the enjoyable friendships and delightful experiences that you have known during this academic year.

The second purpose is to show the part the college plays in the important role of building leaders and defenders of our democratic government and the most significant connotation of democracy — FREEDOM.

The Staff.

Dedication

To those North Georgia College graduates who, throughout the world, are giving their time, energy, and lives for the preservation of the freedom which we enjoy, this yearbook is gratefully dedicated.

A Message From The President . . .

As these lines are written, all mankind is again approaching a crossroad in its march toward the selection of a philosophy of human organization. Nations and the individuals within them will make their selections on the basis of those influences exerted by the home, the church, and the school.

Your college has, over the years, accepted its obligation to assist you, its students, to formulate a personal philosophy embracing the highest degree of integrity, a devotion to duty, and a respect for our nation's ideals. Thus armed, we here are confident of your ability to meet the test the days ahead are sure to bring.

THE BATTALION INSIGNIA

This is the official emblem of the Corps of Cadets of North Georgia College. It is worn as a shoulder patch on the right sleeve of the uniform and as distinctive unit insignia on both epaulettes of the dress uniform coat. This insignia was designed by Captain Raymond C. Hamilton, a former P.M.S.&T., and was approved by the War Department.

The design consists of a boar's head mounted on a yellow shield. The yellow represents the gold that is found in the hills around Dahlonega, and the boar's head, which is taken from General James Edward Oglethorpe's Coat of Arms, represents hospitality. The design above the shield consists of a blue and white bar, the school colors; a Cherokee rose, the state flower of Georgia; and crossed muskets, the insignia of the Infantry. Encircling the entire design is a yellow scroll designating the name and location of the college. This emblem is proudly worn by all cadets.

MILITARY AT N. G. C.

NORTH GEORGIA COLLEGE

Situated at the foot of the beautiful Blue Ridge Mountains in Dahlonega, North Georgia College is probably the nation's most unique, military school.

The college was founded in 1873 on the site of the abandoned U. S. Mint at Dahlonega. The school, long termed "Georgia's West Point," is the state's only four-year military college. Military training is compulsory and all graduating cadets receive reserve commissions, with the select group of Distinguished Military Graduates receiving regular commissions if they so desire.

Down through the years the school has furnished the country with top-flight fighting men during the time of need. The school lost more than 100 of its former students in World War II. During this war men who received their first military training at North Georgia College furnished the Army and Air Force with 2,306 men, the Navy 543, and the Marine Corps 104 — the majority were officers.

Parades are held frequently on Sunday afternoons and each spring the Battalion holds a military problem in attack and defense. The local terrain is rough and offers good experience in conducting operations of small units.

The military life at N. G. C. is brought to a climax each spring by the annual Federal Inspection. Throughout its history the school has always ranked very high on these inspections. The cadets have a right to be proud of their battalion with its glorious history and bright future of prosperous improvement.

Art

GEORGE PARTRIDGE, LARRY LANGFORD, and ELEANOR JONES were the talented staff members who did an excellent job.

Photographers

Without the knowledge, dependability, and hard work of EDWARD LEWIS and MAX SIMS this book would not have been possible.

Classes

SHIRLEY ALLEN (Asst. Editor) always did a commendable job on each task that was assigned. HENRY HALL (Class Editor), MARVIN LAWRENCE, and JEAN FOWLER, solved the class layouts after many problems and expended energy. JUANITA HARRIS and ELINOR VINTON put many hard hours in doing the senior class section.

Military and Organizations

ALLAN FORD (Military Editor), CLIFFORD DAVIS, and BILL HOUK, were the first to finish their section. BROADUS SOWELL (Organizations Editor), WALTER MORAN, ELENA DELMONTE, after much confusion with sponsor pictures, rosters, and write-ups, came out with the largest section in the book.

Features

The enviable task of doing the beauty section and "Who's Who" fell to CAROLYN CLAY and ARTHUR BENNETT. These pages prove to be some of the most interesting. WILLIAM HUGHES selected the snapshots.

Sports

The fact that all sports are not played in the fall gave LUTHER TRAVIS many headaches but, with the assistance of HARRY JOHNSON and BILL PERRIN, he came out with a section representative of N. G. C. intercollegiate and intramural sports. CAROLYN CALLAWAY and EDITH BUSH also made a good showing of co-ed sports.

Business Staff

KENNETH COX, BETTY JO SCOTT, and GEORGE McDONALD were the assistants to the business manager and through them this annual was made financially possible. This efficient staff set a new record in ad sales.

Shirley Allen, Victor Hutchison, Dallas Clarke, Janet King, John Simms, Guy Amason, George Gowder, Joe Dobson, Luther Travis, Don Boggus, John Wilson, Ben McDonald, and Grady Carter.

Chemistry Club

The Chemistry Club is composed of members who are Chemistry majors or minors. Programs are given at the meetings on the various phases of chemistry and professional fields open to a graduate chemist. During the year the club sponsors field trips to such nearby points of interest as the chemical laboratories and plants of Atlanta. Once a year a trip is arranged to include those freshmen and sophomores interested in chemistry as a major.

Physics Club

Three years ago the physics majors organized the PHYSICS CLUB with membership, for the most part, made up of junior and senior physics majors, but open to freshmen and sophomores who have elected to major in the field of physics.

The club serves as a medium for the pursuit of individual interests and also to maintain liaison with the rapid advances in the fields of theoretical and applied physics. This is done through lectures, demonstrations, field trips, and various other programs of interest to the members.

Science Club

The Science Club was the first club organized on the North Georgia College campus. It is an open membership club composed of biology majors, pre-professional students, and anyone interested in its activities. Programs are given on various phases of wildlife and conservation, vocations open to science majors, aspects of health, genetics and other similar topics of interest. The programs are frequently given by the students themselves as well as by outside speakers. Field trips are sponsored by the club to various places of scientific interest in the state.

Letterman's Club

The Lettermen's Club is an organization of those students at North Georgia who have at any time earned an intercollegiate sport letter. Baseball, basketball, tennis, and rifle are considered to be conducted on an intercollegiate basis. Also qualifying as members are those students who have earned a letter in cheerleading, or who have gained sufficient points in intramural sports to have received a letter.

It is the purpose of the Club, not only to promote goodwill and sportsmanship among all, but to provide an official organization and a medium of association for the lettermen of North Georgia College. It is the desire of the Club to sponsor a permanent athletic project for the year 1951-52, and also to hold a banquet; this is in addition to its nine regular meetings.

It is to be considered that each member of the Lettermen's Club has at one time put forth extreme personal effort in behalf of the College activity which his or her letter symbol signifies.

Sigma Theta Fraternity

As a leading factor in the fraternal and social life of the school, the Sigma Theta Fraternity has reached its present status in sixteen years of prosperous growth. The chapter was founded at North Georgia College in 1934, having been brought here by two faculty members.

The Sigma Theta cooperates with the other fraternal and social organizations on the campus to give the annual Pan-Hellenic dance each winter. The fraternity sponsors many informal dances, banquets and picnics for its members and the student body.

With its present growth and interest the Sigma Theta Fraternity can be expected to show even more progress in its future activities.

Rec Club Council

Miss Sara Bruce founded the Recreation Association of North Georgia College, better known as the Rec Club, in the fall of 1936.

The purpose of the organization is to provide opportunities and promote interest in participation in wholesome recreational activities.

The membership is made up of four teams with the council governing the club under the direction of the Women's Director of Physical Education. A president, secretary, treasurer, reporter, four team captains and co-captains, make up the council. The team captains are responsible for the organization and proper functioning of their team. Every girl attending North Georgia College can be a member of the Rec Club, and she can decide which team to join. Each year tournaments are held in almost every sport. The point system is used and, at the end of the year, the team which has accumulated the most points is awarded a cup. The girls having fifteen hundred or more points are also awarded letters, sweaters, or stars.

North Georgia's Rec Club tries in every way to carry out its motto: "An activity for every girl — a girl in every activity."

Officers' Club

The function of the Officers' Club at North Georgia College is to provide an agency for the gathering and dissemination of information pertaining to the cadet corps as a whole.

In its meetings, discussions are conducted and the various members are given opportunity to offer any such information that will benefit or further improve the efficiency of the battalion.

In addition to offering criticism, the members receive information and orders from the departments of the Commandant and PMS&T. In regard to policies to be complied with by the cadets.

For the social benefit of the college the Officers' Club sponsors a formal dance and it is co-sponsor of the annual Military Ball held each graduation.

Glee Club

The Glee Club works up during the year several sacred and secular programs. These include usually a program of Christmas music, a concert of sacred music, and a program of secular music.

The main program is the sacred concert with which the Glee Club travels extensively over the state, thereby serving to acquaint the state with North Georgia College in a very directly inspirational manner. The music performed ranges from the great oratories of Handel and Mendelssohn, "The Messiah" and "Elijah" to the melodiously plaintive spirituals of the Negro. The annual concert itinerary includes usually one or two radio broadcasts.

Forensic Senate

Awards

After a period of competitive training by debating in intercollegiate competition, the Forensic Senate entered the Grand National Tournament, at Mary Washington College, Fredericksburg, Va., and placed well in the upper third. Later in the season, the debate teams hit their stride and, without losing a debate, placed second in the Smoky Mountain Tournament, at the University of Tennessee. The Forensic Senate swept the Georgia Intercollegiate Tournament at Emory University, without a loss, and its affirmative and negative teams met in the final rounds to give North Georgia College the championship.

Throughout the year, the Senate maintained a remarkable record by winning approximately seventy-five per cent of its intercollegiate debates with colleges and universities throughout the debate tours during the year.

The Senate is proud of the record it has established through the years, and zealously works to maintain that record.

Westminister Fellowship

Wesley Foundation

Wesley Foundation is an organization of the Methodist Church that attempts to minister to the total religious life of students on a college campus. It has been the policy of Wesley Foundation to center its program in a Methodist Church nearest the campus. The programs, which have been developed out of the needs of student life, seeks through organized fellowship to provide for the spiritual, moral, and social needs of students. It is our hope that these programs will train students in churchmanship and develop their personal religious life.

Future Business Leaders' Club

The Future Business Leaders' Club of North Georgia College was organized in the Spring of 1949. It was instituted due to the fact that a need was felt by the Junior and Senior students of Business Administration and Secretarial Science for an official organization which would be in a position to present certain aspects of the business world, which existed outside the classroom.

The club meetings, held the first Monday of each month throughout the regular school year, also serve as a gathering for those students, who, in the near future, will be associated in the world of business. Programs at these meetings ordinarily include as speakers, business executives from Atlanta or Gainesville and other cities throughout North Georgia.

It is the aim of the club to undertake to complete a project related to business which would remain in the Business Administration Department for use by future students and others who might profit by its utility. A banquet is also presented for the benefit of club members.

The Future Business Leaders' Club has grown since its beginning in 1949 with a membership of 25, to its present size of some 50 members.

Future Teachers' Organization

The chief purposes of the John C. Sirmons Chapter of Future Teachers of America are to enable students at North Georgia College who are interested in becoming teachers to more fully understand the professional aspects of teaching, and to develop those qualities of leadership that will result in active participation in professional organizations after graduation.

Efforts are made to develop ethical ideals and to enrich the social life of members; to contribute to the development of all students; and to foster education at the community, state, national, and international levels.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS AT N. G. C.

A major outlet for the keen competition that exists between the military companies is the intramural sports program. Football, basketball, volleyball, tennis, track and field, ping pong, boxing and softball are enthusiastically received by the cadets and the existing program has as its objective the development of good sportsmanship and the building of healthier bodies. The athletic trophy is awarded each year to the military company that has accumulated the greatest number of points, and the winning of this trophy partly determines the honor company of the year. Individuals are rewarded for personal efforts by the presentation of sweaters and emblems at the end of the year. The Physical Education Department does a creditable job in furnishing coaches and officials, as well as hours of planning and directing, for the intramural sports program.

Miss Bobbie Rucker

Cyclops Queen for 1951

"Bunny" reigns Queen of the 1951 CYCLOPS, the first co-ed to be named as such in the history of the yearbook.

The blue eyed sophomore from Bellton was elected by a popular vote of the entire student body, proving her loveliness and popularity. She is majoring in home economics and is a member of the Home Ec Club, the Mercureans, and a 1950 CYCLOPS beauty. Vital statistics: light brown hair, blue eyes, height 5 ft. 2½ in., weight 106 lbs.

Lovelies elected to the Beauty Court by popular vote were Delores Martin, Betty Shearouse, Sammy Willis, Mary Shearouse, and Nicky Jackson.

Who's Who In American Universities And Colleges

Pictured above are the students from North Georgia College who were selected for "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges."

The students who are recognized in "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges" represent over 600 colleges and universities. They are nominated by their respective schools on the basis of: scholarship, cooperation and leadership in academic and extracurricular activities, citizenship and service to the school, promise of future usefulness to business and society.

Each student accepted by the organization is awarded a certificate of recognition. In addition "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges" conducts a placement service for the convenience of its members when they graduate or in future years. This service is very helpful in helping the students selected find better positions in the business world.

Harvest Festival 1950

The Queen.

The Harvest Court.

A new queen is crowned.

The lead out.

During the dance.

Each Fall Quarter the Home Economics Club sponsors the Harvest Festival Dance, highlighted by the presentation of the Harvest Queen and her court. Each company and fraternity sponsor a candidate and a popular vote determines the lucky girl. Miss Mary Mason, sponsored by "D" Company, was crowned at the festivities in October. Members of the Harvest Court were Miss Dolores Martin ("C" Company), Miss Mary Ann Slappey ("B" Company), Miss Samille Willis ("A" Company), Miss Mary Shearouse (Sigma Theta), Miss Betty Shearouse (Band), and Miss Roslyn Rogers (Rex).

Acknowledgement

To all those who have made any contribution, whether large or small, toward the publication of this annual, go our thanks and appreciation.

Our thanks especially go to the staff and faculty members who have given up many hours of their time in order to make this edition possible. By no means is this a perfect yearbook, but we do hope that we have accomplished our plan and that you will place the value upon this book that we intended to create.

—The Editors
